NORTH AFRICA IN FERMENT (Filmstrip) New York times, 1952. 59 fr., b&w, 35mm.
(Report on the News, May. 1952)

Summary: Surveys the history, geography, and economic conditions of North Africa, an area dominantly populated by Arabs of the Moslem faith; discusses the tensions emanating from the nationalist insistence for greater political independence and Russia's desire to take over the strategic area.
Describes the modern improvements and the relatively harsh French rule in French Morocco, Algeria, and Tunisia.
